

Tax Law Update for CA Tax Professional

Date: January 19, 2012

8 hours cpe: 6 federal and 2 CA
CTEC: 1001-CE-6915

This session will contrast and compare various aspects of federal and California tax law, as it highlights the most important changes for 2011. The comprehensive coverage of federal and California legislation, including conformity and nonconformity issues is information you will find essential for the upcoming filing season.

Learning Objectives:

- To refresh the California tax professional on new and existing federal and state tax law in readiness for the 2012 filing season.
- To update the tax professional on procedures and other items of interest affecting interaction with tax agencies.
- To contrast and compare important tax law affecting the preparation of accurate federal and California tax returns.

Vicki Mulak, EA, CFP is also insurance and securities licensed. She's well-known for her CA tax law and business entity focus. She testifies before the FTB in Sacramento and is involved in state legislation, attending Assembly and Senate committee hearings as necessary. She currently serves on the FTB Advisory Board and the EDD's Small Business Employer's Advisory Committee. She speaks on tax topics for CSEA, CSTC, "Best of the West" and NAEA. Vicki continues as an editor of each annual edition of the Accounting Quickfinder book. In 2011, Vicki was awarded the "Distinguished Service Award" for enhancement of CSEA's reputation. In 2006, she received CSEA's prestigious "Thomas P Hess Award" in recognition of contributions to their educational goals. She received her BS in Business Administration from Thomas Edison State College in NJ.
